Postage on Way Newspapers.

MESSRS. EDITORS, - Can you tell us the object of our legislators in wishing to subject way newspapers to letter postage? Surely they cannot expect revenue therefrom; and should the circumstance that occasionally through ignorance, or in defiance of law, some person writes on the paper which he sends to a friend, deprive many a young man, who has left his home to seek a living in the city, of the privilege of reading of the affairs of his native place, in the village newspaper, which his parents subscribe for (partly on his account) read at home, and forward for his perusal; or must the family at home be deprived of the literary paper which the absent one purchases, reads, and sends for pleasure and improvement, thus reciprocating kindness and affection? Neither party can afford to pay for two papers-much less letter postage. In fact postage is often the objection to frequent letter writing, but the slight tax upon papers enables friends separated by distance to know of each others welfare by the handwriting upon the wrapper of a newspaper. I make the inquiry for the information of many. MANY.

Swimming .- There is one simple scientific rule which, if suitably impressed upon the mind, would save life in all ordinary cases; and, for want of a knowledge of this rule, very expert swimmers are sometimes drowned. The rule is this: Clasp your hands behind your back, make your nose the highest point of your body, (or look towards the horizon over your forehead,) and do not stir a muscle, and you will infallibly float.

Thus every human being has a life preserver against water, if only taught to use it. The brutes, from their different conformation, and especially from their want of the great rational developement of the forehead, float by necessity, and swim by instinct. It is a pity and a paradox that lowance of brains! [Boston Free Am

THE RUSSIAN RAILROAD .- It is stated that the Emperor has obtained his first loan of $10,000,000 at 81 per cent. to commence his grand work of a Railroad, from St. Petersburgh to Moscow, 460 miles by the present traveled road $30,000,000 it is calculated, will finish the work that distance. Then, to complete the grand enterprise now contemplated, the road is to be continued in nearly a direct line, 740 miles farther, to the Caspian Sea which will be across the heart of the Russian territory, and from boundary to boundary of the Emperor's dominious; this will furnish a very important facility for the transportation of troops, &c. and give the Emperor an immense advantage For the execution of this stupendous work, we understand that labor in abundance can be obtained at 30 cents a day, and even less. EMPLOYMENT SOCIETY .- The last 'notion' of the Bostonians is the establishment of what they propose to call the "Boston Employment Society. It is to be conducted something after the fashion of an intelligence office, where those who desire employment may call, and those wanting assistance may leave their names. It is to be composed of five hundred members, who shall each annually subscribe two dollars, for the pay of a superintendent and other expenses connected with the plan. The superintendent is at all times to attend to the duties without fee from applicants, so that applicants need not fear that they will be imposed upon.

GERMAN PREDENCE.-There arrived at this port on Saturday last the schooner Phorbe, of and from Philadelphia, with the first instalment of a band of fifty German families, who, under the auspices of the German Agricultural Society, are proceeding to take possession of a purchase of 36,000 acres of land recently made in Hardy and Hampshire Counties, Virginia. These fifty families are to be succeeded next year by fifty more and so continue at the same annual rate until two handred families shall have been settled on the land. They are not recent emigrants, but have been residing in and about Philadelphia for four or five years past; and, doubtless, taking a true prospective view of the times, have most wisely determined upon bestowing themselves upon a portion of the wild but very improvable lands of the Old Dominion. The average price they pay is 23 cents per acre, and the tract is represented to be well watered by numerous tributaries to the South Branch, [Georgetown (D. C.) Advocate.

Ice.-In this melting weather, when ice is scarce, it is well for every one to recollect, that the best way to preserve it is to cover it up, two or three inches deep in sawdust. In this way, no perceptible loss occurs. It is infinitely better than rolling it up in woollen cloth; and involves no expense or trouble, and it is kept perfectly clean. [Cin. Repub.

Gentlemen—I will thank you to send me two dozen more of your Sarsaparilla and Tomato Bitters. I have used in with great success in four cases of dyspepsia, curing each of them in an almost incredible short time; likewise one of scrothous humor and one of jaudice. I consider it a valua-ble compound, and must say I have used it with the happi-est effects. Should like to have it soon as convenient. One est effects. Should like to have it soon as convenient. One of the cases of dyspepsia was a gentleman who had suffered a long time, and had been to the Springs two scasons.

A. Boyden, Esq. of Cambridge, cured of the dyspepsia of two years standing, after trying a hundred remedies without the least effect.

Sanns's Sarsapariti.a.—The numerous objections to dif-ferent forms in which Sarsaparilla has been heretofore pre-scribed are well founded. The quantity of sugar contained in the Syrup will in mest instances nauseate and surfeit the stomach, if a sufficient dose be taken to be of any benefit.

stomach, if a sufficient dose be taken to be of any benefit. The decection and infusion being so liable to spoil, combined with the difficulty of preparation, render them both comparatively uscless and inert. Hence the superior value and efficiency of the article now under consideration, which contain the essential principle on which the restorative virtues of the Sarsaparilla depend, extracted by an entirely new, ingenious and costly apparatus. The Sarsaparilla is then combined with other powerful purifiers of the blood, selected wholly from the vegesable kingdom, and these are concentrated into a fluid extract of great power. Therefore persons suffering from a debilitated system, or diseases of a chronic or acute nature, also contaneous eruption, will find in this preparation all combined that can be useful for the removal of their complains. CITY INTELLIGENCE.

SATURDAY, July 30. U. S. CIRCUIT COURT .- Before Judge Betts .-Samuel A. Suydam was tried for assaulting Signor Emelia d'Aivear at N. bio's, in September last. They are both young men, Suydam belonging to South Carolina, and d'Alvear being Secretary of Legation to his father, Gen. d'Alvear, Minister from the Argentine Republic. The present action is on the part of the United States under a law of Congress rendering it penal (the punishment being imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years and fine at the discretion of the Court,) to assault a minister or public functionary from abroad.

Signor d'Alvear testified that he was at Niblo's, and had gone to the bar with two friends for the purpose of taking refreshment. While in the act of raising the tumbler he was struck at from behind with a knife, which cut through the upper lip, from the nose down, knocked out or shattere-! two of his teeth, and also went through his lower lip. The blood gushed out. Feeling that there must have been some mistake, he turned quickly and exclaimed, 'What is this? He saw the knife again uplifted to strike him, but warder it off with his hand, in doing which, one of his fingers was severely cut. He did not see the blows struck, but observed Mr. Suydam looking very angry. Witness was taken to an upper room, and a physician sent for, who sewed up and dressed his wounds, and he was for some time sick, not being able to take any refreshments for a fortnight afterwards, except through a small tube. He had seen Mr. Suydam about a year before at the Astor House, (at which place and Rockaway witness afternately passed a short period in Aug. 1840.) but not since, and had never spoken to him. His lady was less pointed out to witness one day as Mrs. Suydam. "I also pointed out to witness one day as Mrs. Suydam. "I never," said Signor d'Alvear, in answer to questions pat to him, "was in her bedroom—never wrote a letter to her, nor caused any other person to write such—and do not know that I ever saw her after that day, or would have known her again even had I seen her. I never did any thing, by word or action, to cause jealousy or give offence to Mr. Saydam." Mr. Harmony, a triend of d'Aivear's, who followed Suy-dam after ke had thrown down the knile and gone into the street, said that Suydam complained of Signor d'Alvear having been in his wire's shamber and that she had lett. He (Suydam) said that he left South Carolina determined to kill d'Alvear, but he thanked God he had not done so. He would have challenged d'Alvear but was aware that the latter's situation precluded him from accepting a challenge.— Mr. Harmony said his friend would expect satisfaction, when Suydam replied he would be happy in giving Dr. Post stated that the wounds had healed 'kindly' and with specie in that city.

Mr. Price stated to the Court that a material witness was still absent, and asked leave that her testimony might be ta-ken and presented in mitigation of penalty, which was

The jury returned a verdict of guilty.

POLICE OFFICE .- ROBBERY IN A DISREPUTA-BLE HOUSE .- On the Ist of May last, a young man named William Bellows, aged 18, left his home in Columbia county to travel for his health, with some $200 in his pocket. On Friday morning he arrived here in the steamboat with $165 in his pocket, and soon after rode out in a barouche to Yorkville with a frail female named Caroline Oldes, and on returning, though she attempted to get his money on the way, he went with her to the house of Mary Saunders, 37 Thom; is-street, where she boarded-and while there with his coal off, she asked him to treat her. A man named John Cherry coming into the room, Bellows handed out a $10 bill, which coming into the room, Bellows handed out a $10 bill, which the girl instantly snatched and ran into another room with.

but she told him it was worthless, and Cherry finally took it back and gave him $5 in specie. While this turmoil was proceeding the money was stolen out of the coat pocket of Bellows and the pocket book replaced. On discovering this he started to find a magistrate, Cherry accompanying him and on the way introduced him to a young man as a magis,

SUNDAY, July 31. ARREST OF A HORSE STEALER.-Samuel Boyce, alias Thompson, alias Strong, alias Smith, was this morning arrusted by officer J. S. Smith of the Upper Police, charged with stealing a horse from Patrick Rooney, corner of 4ta street and Latayette Place, which he hired on Saturday for an hour or more but did not return with it. He was found by officer Smith this morning and also the horse, which he by officer Smith this morning and also the horse, which he had placed at Livery in 4th street, near the 6th avenue. He has been in the habit of hiring horses at sundry stables to take a ride, and after he had gone some distance, stripping off the saddle and bridle and turning them loose in the streets. On Friday he also obtained by false preteners a saddle, spurs and whip from Mr. Taylor's saddirry in the 3th avenue, by stating that he was sent for them by Mr. Strang in Broadway, who would pay the bill on presentation. He was fully committed to answer on the several charges.

ARREST OF A HIGHWAY ROBERS.-William Dutcher, a, black man, was yesterday evening arrested by officer W. H. Stephens, charged with a highway robbery. Some few days since he enticed a man named Basil Banks, also black out of a house at the corner of Anthony and Centre-streets, and while in the street knocked him down and robbed him of $17. He was fully committed to answer.

PERJURED HIMSELF.—Officer A. M. C. Smith yesterday arrested Isaac Walter, the person who stood bail for Otis Allen, charged with divers forgeries, on his being brought before Judge Inglis on a writ of habeas corpus. He then and see nothing to prevent it from going much lower. The swore that he was possessed of real estate worth $20,000 and upward, consisting of houses, tands, &c., all of which the officer has since ascertained are the property others. He was fully committed to answer.

A DISHONEST ROOM Mate.-Officer Tappan to-day arrested a young man named Willard Richards, Jr. alias Nathan J. Davis, for robbing his room mate, a Mr. Campbell, of $34 in bank bills, which he abstracted from his pocket on Saturday night, while he was in bed. $28 of the stolea money was found upon Richards when arrested, which Campbell fully identified. Committed. They were boarders at No. 7 Rosevelt street.

CORONER'S OFFICE .- ACCIDENTAL DROWNING. The Coroner held an inquest this morning at No. 24 Bedford-street, on the body of Patrick Riley, aged 22, a native of Ireland. The deceased, about 6 or 7 o'clock on Friday day evening, stepped from the dock at the foot of Dey street on a canal-boat lying to the slip, and in doing so ac-clientally fell into the water and suck. His body was recovered in from ten to fitteen minutes, and attempts were made to resuscitate it by the foolish and injurious practice of rolling it in a barrel, but without any success, as the vi-tal spars had been extinguished. Verdict of the Jury, accidentally drowned.

DEATH FROM INTEMPERANCE .- The Coroner this morning held an inquest at No. 108 Nineteenth-s reet, on the body of Mary McCrea, age unknown, born in Ireland, a woman of very intemperate habits. Sae was taken ill on Thursday complaining of pains in the regions of the head, and died suide siy on Saturday afternoon at 6 o'clock. Verdict, died of disease produced by intemperance.

DEATH IN PRISON .- Also at his office in the Halls of Justice on the body of a min, supposed to be Isaac Worden, aged 35 years, from a military court martial discharge found in his pocket. He was found lying exposed to the sun on the Batte y about 4 o'clock on Saturday, and taken to the Police Other and committed. The prison physician cupped him, &c. but with no good effect, as he died during the night. Verdict, died of effasion of the brain produced by
